

Oak Class

English

This week in English, we have been writing our Maya story.

The children have been reading 'Rain Player' and have based their final piece on this tale.

Science

This week in Science, the children have been consolidating their learning about the process of reproduction by dissecting a Lily.

